

Online seminar: Older patient seminar

Wednesday 17 November 2021

Organisers: Professor Akbar Vohra, Manchester

08:15 Log in available

08:30 Welcome and introduction
Professor Akbar Vohra, Manchester

08:40 The role of prehabilitation in older patients during a pandemic

Professor Sandy Jack, Southampton

09:05 Questions and discussion

09:15 Critical care of the older patient - any lessons from COVID?

Dr Tamas Szakmany Newport

09:40 Questions and discussion

09:50 Anaesthesia and the spectre of dementia.

Dr Tanuja Shah, Derby

10:15 Questions and discussion

10:25 Break

10:35 Analgesic strategies for the elderly patients

Dr Chandran Jepeganiam, Manchester TBC

11:00 Questions and discussion

11:10 Role of geriatric medicine in the management of the older surgical patient.

Dr David Shipway, Bristol

11:35 Questions and discussion

11:45 Does anaesthetic technique matter for the older patient's undergoing surgery?

Dr Andrew Castello-Cortes, London

12:10 Questions and discussion

12:20 Summary and closing remarks

Professor Akbar Vohra

12:30 Close

Learning objectives:

1. Optimisation preoperative care of the older patients prior to surgery.
2. Understanding of clinical challenges in the management of elderly patients presenting for surgery.
3. Improving the analgesia strategy for the older patient.
4. Use of multi-disciplinary teams for the perioperative management of the older.

Link:

<https://anaesthetists.org/Home/Education-events/Events/Event-Details/eventDateId/475>